DELAND, Fla. - The Armstrong State University women's basketball team started hot, but cooled off in a 61-45 NCAA Division I exhibition loss at Stetson University on Monday evening in Deland, Fla.

The exhibition was the second this season against a DI opponent foe as the Pirates faced Savannah State on November 3rd, losing 68-61. It was the third time that Armstrong State and Stetson had faced in women's basketball, and the first in an exhibition. The last meeting between the two teams came on Dec. 10, 1981, an 85-80 win by the Pirates.

Armstrong State started off the contest by hitting five of its first nine shots from the floor in building a 13-9 lead in the first seven minutes. The Pirates, however, hit just five of their next 23 shots from the floor to end the first half as Stetson took a 25-21 lead.

Stetson opened the third quarter on a 19-6 run over the first eight minutes to build a 46-27 lead and rode that advantage to the double-digit win.

Senior Shermika Harris led the Pirates with 12 points on the night.

Sarah Sagerer led the Hatters with 15 points to go with seven rebounds, while Brianti Saunders added 12 points and Breana Bey notched 11

Armstrong State returns to action on Thursday, November 26th, facing Hawai'i Hilo in the Oahu Thanksgiving Tournament in Honolulu. Game time is 6:00 p.m. Eastern.
